FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Mysore Budget Estimates for 1892-93.

Circular No. 1758, dated the 28*th September* 1891.

The Government having ordered that the Budget Estimates should in future be printed and issued before the commencement of the official year, the Comptroller has the honor to request that the Heads of Offices and Departments will be good enough to prepare their Budget Estimates of Receipts and Disbursements for 1892-93, and despatch them so as to reach this Office not later than the 15th November next.

2. The Budget Estimates should invariably be sent direct to this office. Such of them as may be found to require the orders of Government will be submitted thereto by this Office.

3. The Receipt Budget should include only what is expected to be actually received during the year. The Disbursement Budget should provide as regards fixed charges, the full amount of the sanctioned scale and as regards fluctuating charges such as contingencies, travelling allowances, &c., the fixed amounts wherever they have been so fixed and the average based on the actuals of the previous 3 years for all other items. If any saving be anticipated, a proportionate reduction should be made; if on the other hand the average is exceeded, a note should be added giving reasons for the same.

4. No new charge should be included in the Budget Estimates until sanctioned by Government, but a note may be made separately in red ink at the end of the Budget of any fresh charge which may [illegible] for payment during the year.

5. The figures to be enterd under Estimates for 1891-92 are those shown in the printed Budget of this Office for that year, as modified by the memo of additions and alterations made in the estimates of that year, appended to the Financial Report of this Office for 1890-91. The figures to be entered in the column of Actuals for 1890-91 should be verified from the Treasury Accounts as far as possible before they are entered in the Budgets.

6. Full explanation should be given in separate columns for all the differences between the Actuals of 1890-91 and the Estimates of the coming year, and also for the differences between the Estimates of 1891-92 and 1892-93; but in case of receipts, the explanation may be restricted to only those items in which the differences exceed Rs. 1,000 under major heads. If any variations are based on orders of Government, their number and date should be quoted.

7. The Budget Estimates relating to the Department of Forest, Excise, Registration, Civil and Criminal Courts and Jails and Lockups, Police, Education and Medical should be reviewed and compiled by Heads of the respective Departments, and one consolidated statement sent to this Office by each Department within the prescribed date.

To save unnecessary trouble and correspondence, the Heads of Offices and Departments are specially requested to see that these instructions are fully attended to before the Budgets are signed and forwarded to this Office.

H. EAGLES,
for Comptroller.
